Pride is . . .

. . . showing a feeling that something is better than anything else
. . . a successful or thriving force to reach a goal . . .

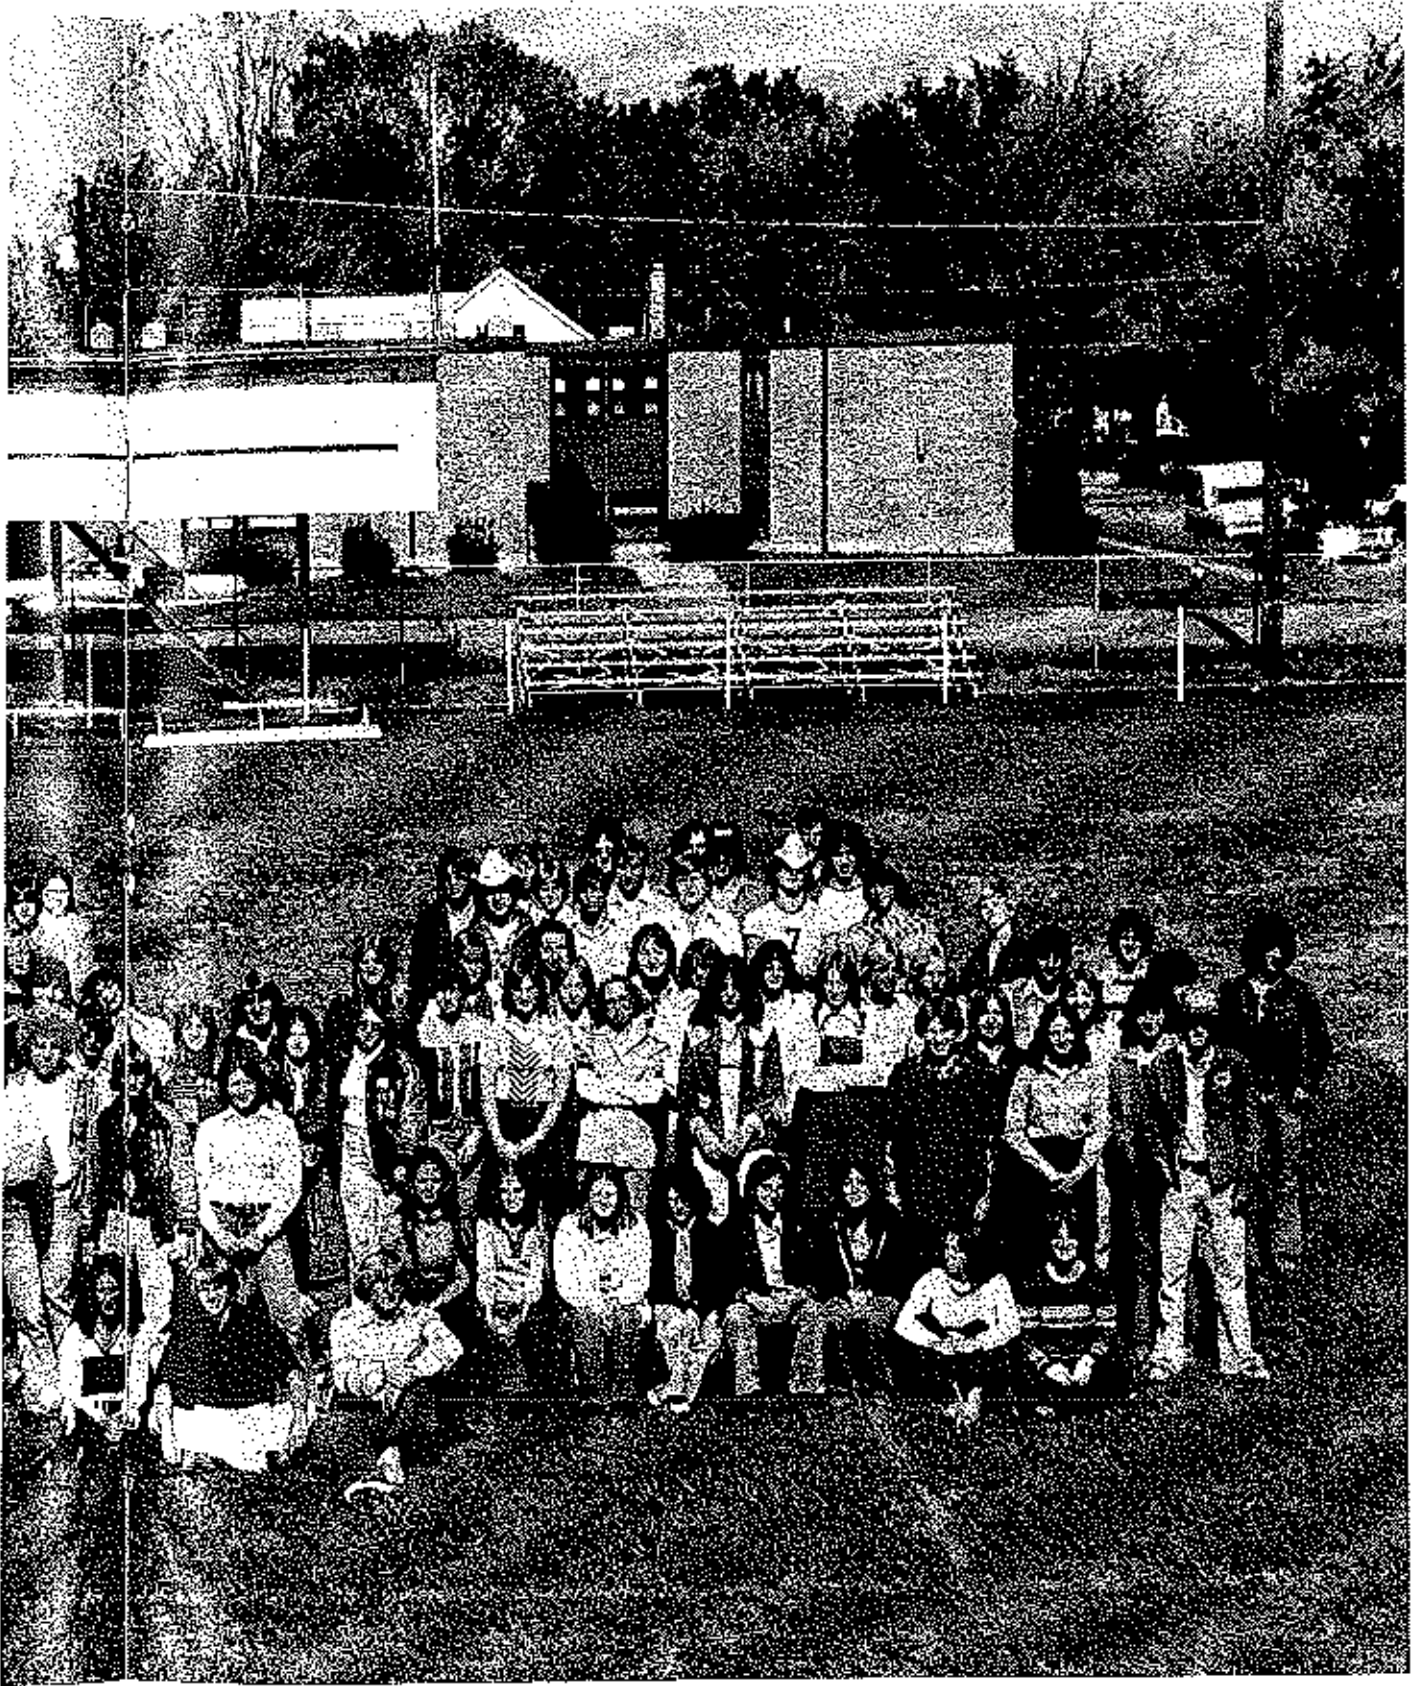

... a favorable feeling of one's own worth or acts ... to have pride in work and achievements ...

... a self-respect that can be seen not only in groups but standing alone ...

... to indulge in self-esteem to the extent of glory above all ...

... anything of which one is proud,

Volleyball

The Mustang Volleyball Team saw many old and new faces this season. Two members of the team were named to the All Conference Teams: Suste Tompkins, Honorable Merit, and Teresa Webb, 2nd Team. One noteworthy game was with Osage. After losing to Osage at Osage, the girls came back on their home court winning a decisive victory. Next year should be a good one, with many returning letterwomen.

Boy's Track

Overall, the Mustangs boy's track team had a good season. There were outstanding performances in the 100 yd. dash, 220 dash, the mile, 2 mile, triple, and high jump events. Next year will see the absence of many important seniors such as Dit Apperson, Jim Reavis, David Stark, Ralph Greenway, Brad Uptergrove, and many others. However, with a large number of freshmen out this season, and the returning lettermen, the Mustang track team has a very promising future.

With several returning lettermen, the 1978 Mustang Golf Team placed 2nd in the Tri-County Conference. For the 1st time in a few years, the Mustangs beat the Jefferson City Jays. The team will lose two fine seniors this year; Terry Jarrett and Rick Wahlbrink. However, with several lettermen to return next year, prospects for the 1979 season look good.

Homecoming

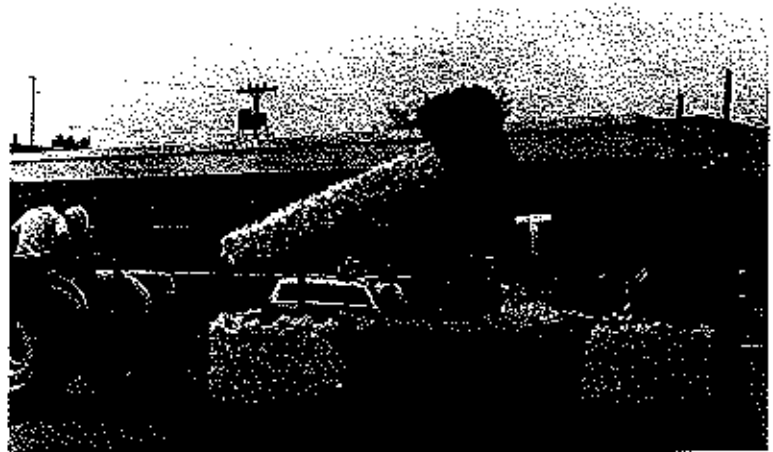

The evening of September 30 came to a climax with the crowning of Diane Crismon as Queen.

Queen candidates were Diane Crismon, Barbie Miller, Julie Perkin, Becky Schmidt and Cindy Uber.

The theme of this year's activities was "A Tribute to Elvis." Many fine floats expressed this theme. First place went to the FFA and FHA float. Two bands, high school and junior high school, helped celebrate the excitement.

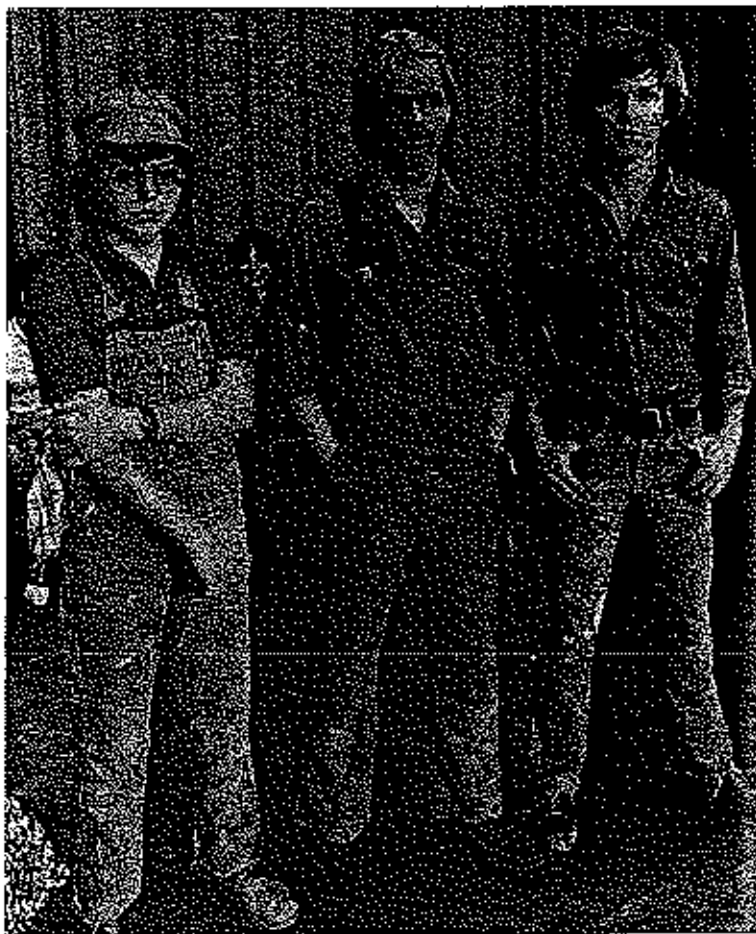

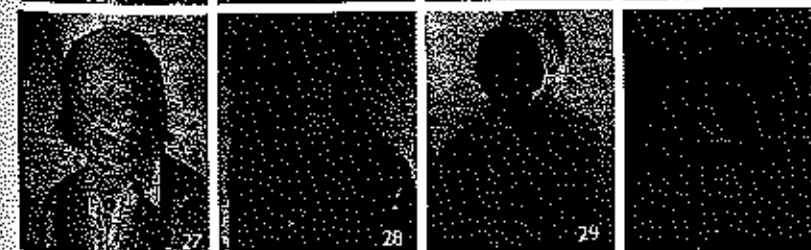

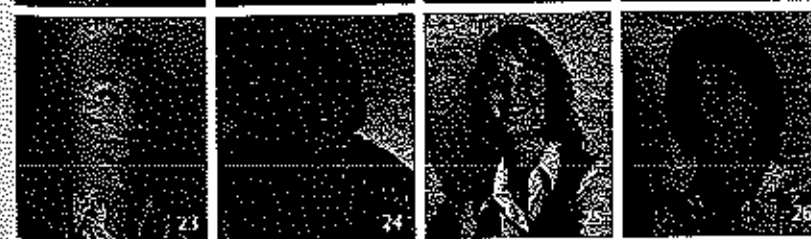

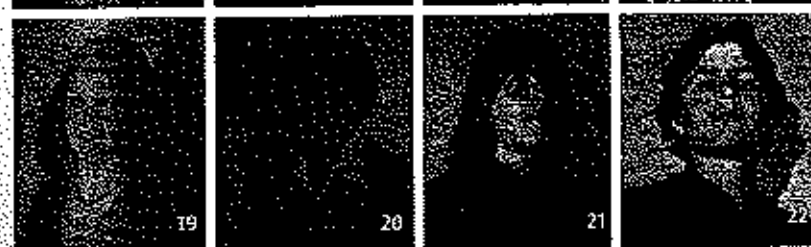

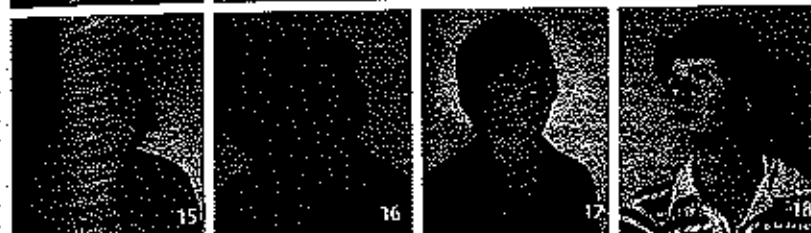

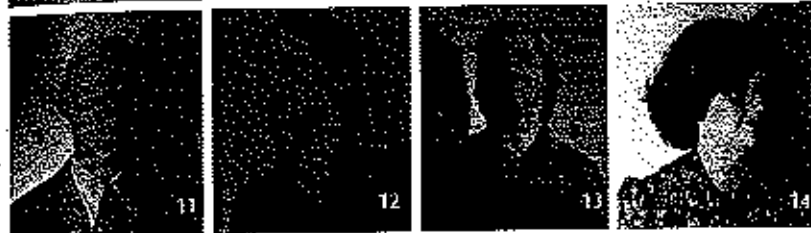

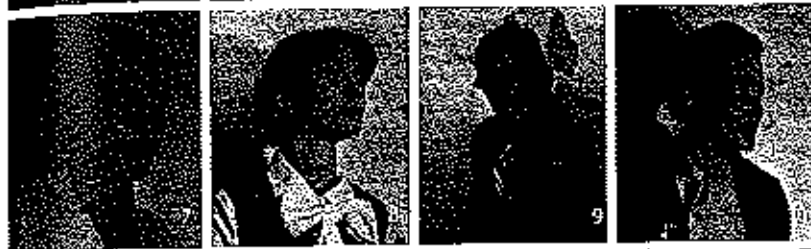

Three Acts - Nov. 3 & 4

The play this year featured no major role. All parts were equally important in the complex plot.

"The Remarkable Incident at Carsons Corner" deals with the in-depth search for the murderer of a young boy. When different scenes of the crime are re-enacted, all members of the cast are found guilty of the crime.

The final scene of the play shows the boy's father explaining the trouble with everyone involved. The play ends with this touching the emotional scene.

One Acts

The one act plays were presented on February 30 and 31. Both comical and serious plays were presented.

"I'll Love You Forever, Tomorrow" featured a honeymoon scene in a funny fashion. "The Wheelchair" was a serious drama dealing with an accident. "Who's on First" was presented by Greg Jarrett and Jeff Rogers. "Moonshine and Martians" was the comedy for Friday night. "Country Gothic," "Voices," and "The Last Leaf" were also presented. Greg Tannehill presented a solo.

Queen Of Popularity And Beauty

The coronation of the 1978 Queen of Popularity and Beauty was held between the "A" and "B" games on February 10. Suspense continued until all three candidates were escorted onto the floor. Debbie Wright was crowned by her predecessor Becky Clark, amidst cheers and applause.

The maids representing each class were: Sally Hammond and Kim Cooney, Freshmen; Becky Gier and Rona Bowness, Sophomores; Barb Yaeger and Tanya Robinson, Juniors. The Senior princesses were Merry Payton and Becky Schmidt. The traditional dance was held following the game.

"Saturday Night Fever" was chosen by the Junior class as the theme for the prom this year. A buffet dinner was held at the Junior High School with a short program preceding the dinner. The gym was decorated with blue and white crepe paper which made a gateway into the disco atmosphere.

A casual dance was held at the country club following the high school dance. BJ's Traveling Disco Show provided the music for both dances.

Spring Show

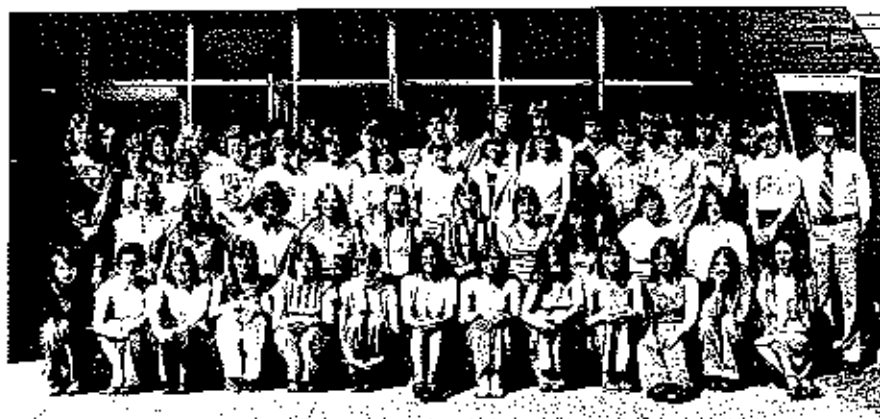

The theme of this year's spring show was a "Musical Kaleidoscope." Instead of the same program being presented each night, the program varied.

A pop group was featured in two numbers: "Swingtown" and "Day-break." The solos were sung by the Seniors. Girl's glee was featured in the number "In the Mood." Milo Pittman and Wesley Holloway presented a duet "My Love." The finale was traditional with Senior boys pushing Senior girls in swings.

Marcy Marriott

Eldon Administrative Unit R-1 Employee July, 1966 - April, 1978

Rough-hewn, craggy countenance; a merry twinkle of the eye; a smile; a word; a bit of philosophy worthy of ancient Greece; a man in love with life, who has given much, but has received thrice over in return; one who has loved others and, in turn, has been loved; one who has touched the lives of young and old alike, for good and upright things. Those who know him are simply proud to say, he is my friend.

Text by John Dowler

" I want to learn what life is for.
I don't want much, I just want more.
Ask what I want and I will sing,
I want everything."

From the soundtrack "A Star is Born," 1976
