We Were Not Alone!

This year the Referet staff chose We Were Not Alone as a theme. On a team, in a group, or with our friends; We Were Not Alone.

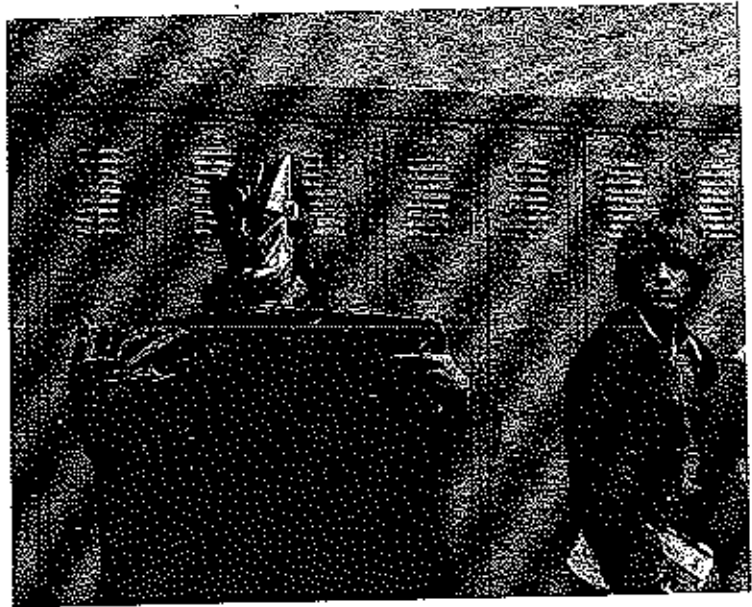

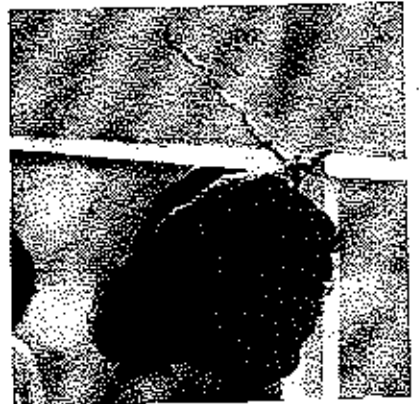

We Were Not Alone

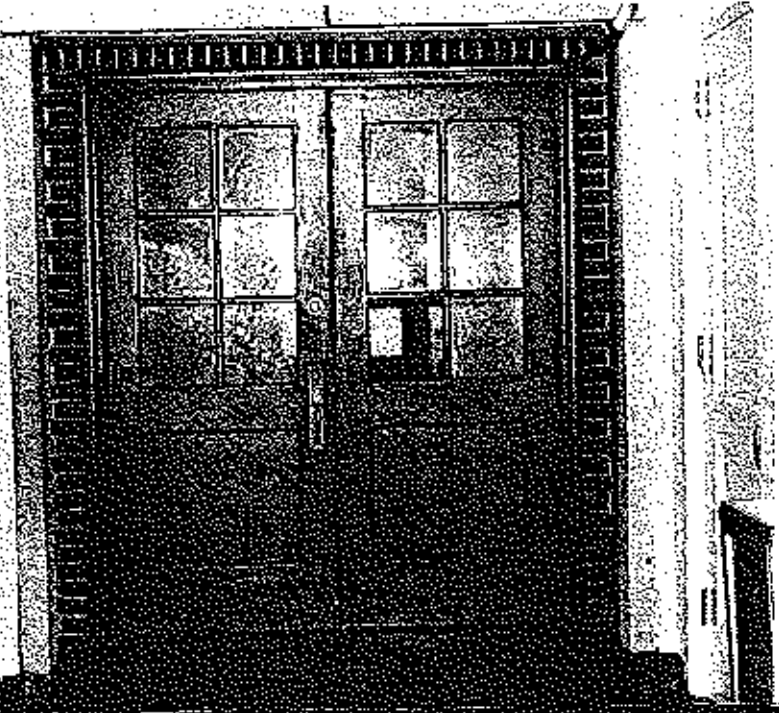

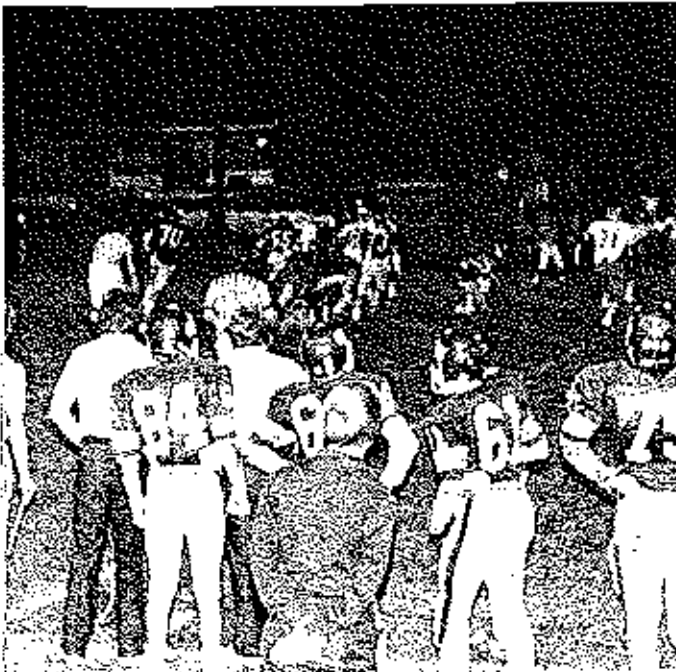

As we come to the end of the 70's, one aspect of the decade has been the science fiction craze and increased studies on the possibility of U.F.O.s and life on other planets, perhaps We Are Not Alone.

We Were Not Alone!

Even as we sat by ourselves We Were Not Alone. Our thoughts and memories were with us.

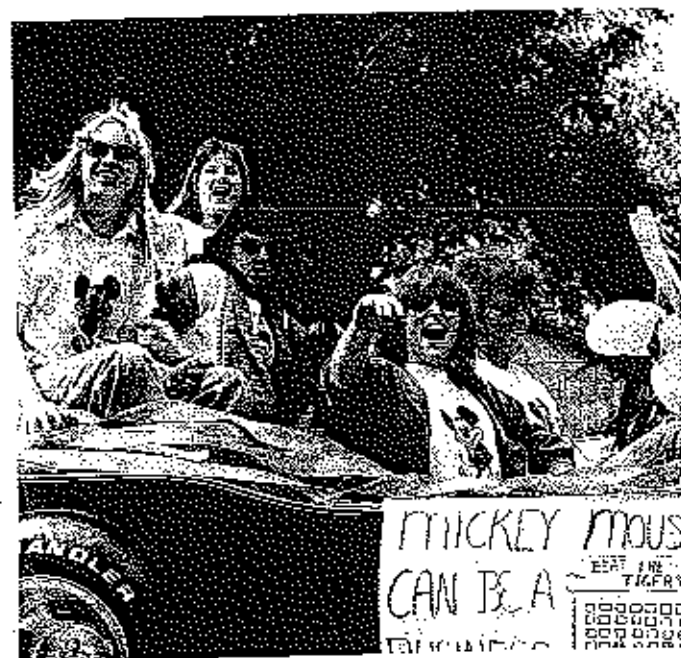

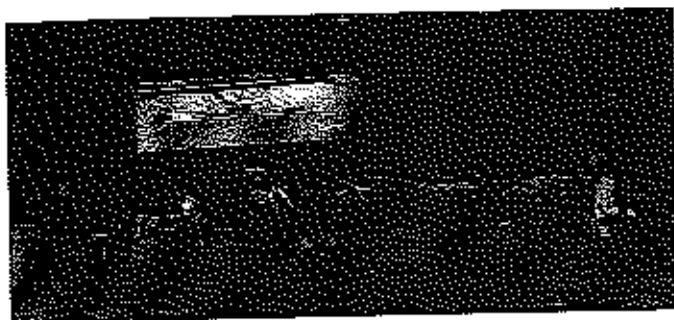

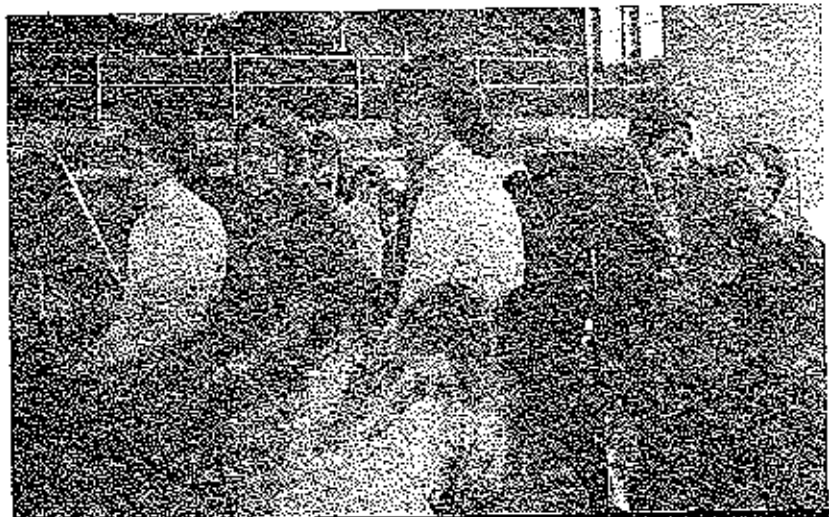

We Were Not Alone!

The spirit of unity prevailed as the Mustangs set out to play the Tigers. At the pep assembly, parade, game, and dance, We Were Not Alone.

We Were Not Alone!

As we talked, joked, laughed, or sat with our friends, We Were Not Alone.

Football Homecoming

Mickey Mouse was 50 years old and Eldon gave him quite a birthday party in celebration of our football Homecoming. Susie Tompkins reigned over the festivities as Tanya Robinson, Lisa Brewer, Wendy Ketner, and Jeanette Williams served as her court. In the float contest the seniors of '79 came out on top. Winnie the Pooh was the central character for the seniors with other Disney characters supplying ideas for the other floats. The band Rock Foundation provided the music at the dance afterward.

Queen Of Popularity & Beauty

Bev Miller was crowned queen to top off a night of exciting basketball action. Miss Miller's court included Barb Yaeger and Jeanette Williams as senior princesses. Becky Gier and Sara Davis were Junior maids. Sophomore maids were Karen Koerner and Sally Hammond. Freshman maids were Amanda Wilkins and Linda Perkins.

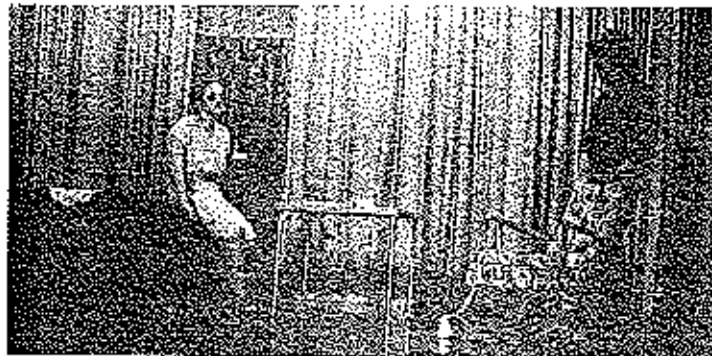

B-team action provided an exciting warm-up for the crowning of the queen and set the stage for the varsity action. The varsity Mustangs played a well-balanced game and emerged homecoming victors over Tipton. During half-time the cheerleaders did a dance routine to "Sweet Talkin' Women." Pep band entertained during half-time and provided music for the homecoming festivities.

Music for the dance was provided by the live band Justin' Time.

A Night Of One Acts

The Drama Department presented an evening of diversified entertainment. "A Doctor In Spite Of Himself," "Sparkin'," "The Storm," "I Bring You Flowers," "The Mice Have Been Drinking," "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay," and three dramatic readings were presented. Student directors were Leahne Russell, Barbara Yaeger, Jeff Rogers, Michelle Abbett, David Wood, and Greg Tannehill.

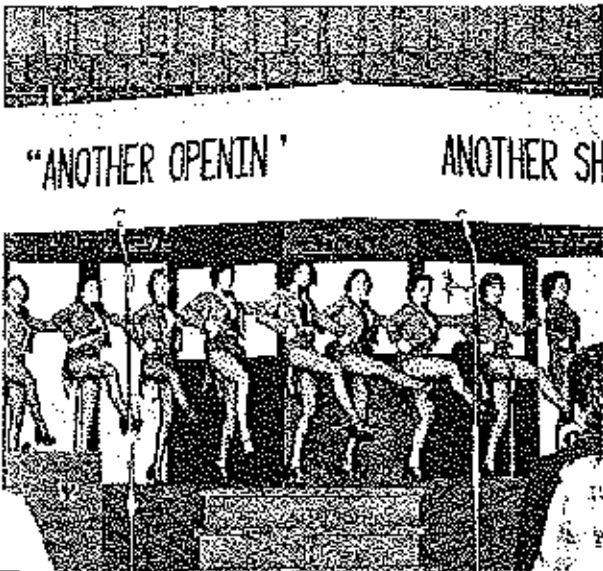

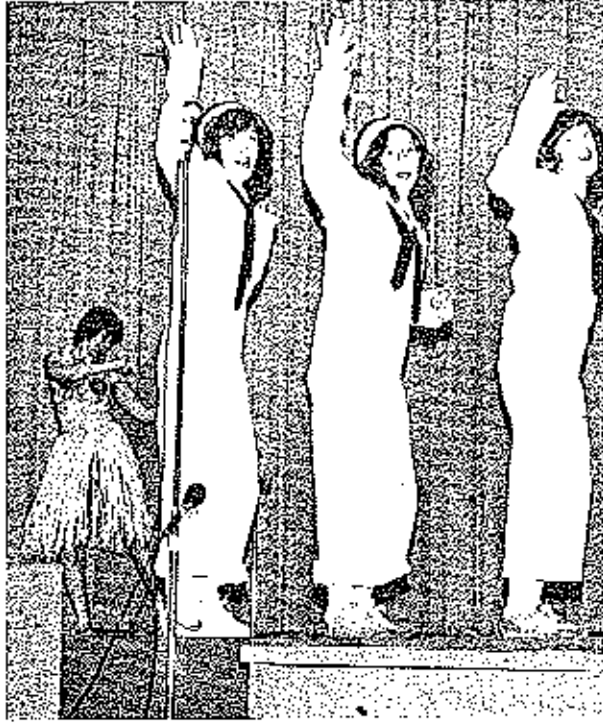

Spring Show

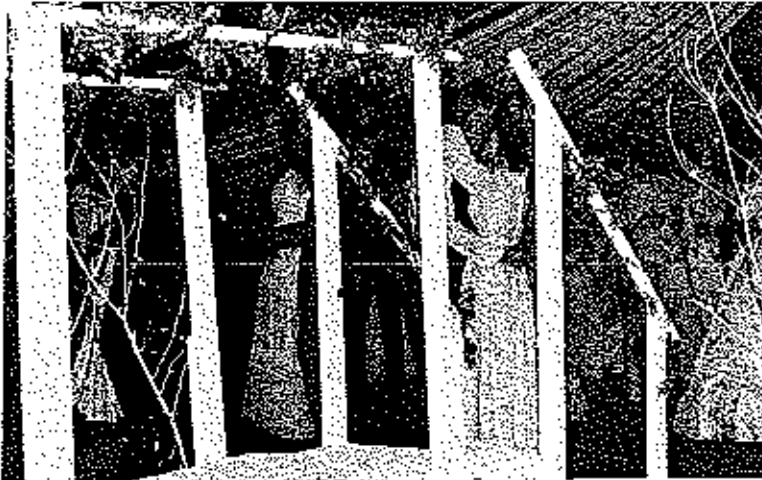

"Another Openin', Another Show" was both the name and opening number of this year's Spring Show (3). The show consisted entirely of songs from Broadway. The glees, chorus, small ensembles, and solos performed songs from Oklahoma (5,9), Fiddler On The Roof, South Pacific (6,8), and The Sound Of Music. An added feature was the center aisle, which allowed singers and dancers to come down to the audience in acts such as Anything You Can Do (1), Funny Girl (2), The Wiz (10), and Baby Face (7). Solos and ensembles performed songs from Cabaret (12) and Porgy And Bess(13). The Finale was traditional and honored the Seniors (11).

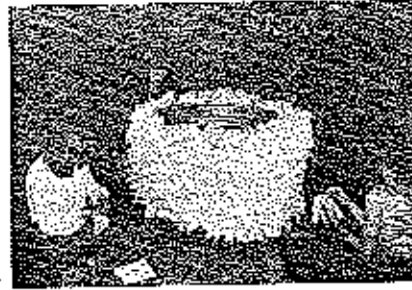

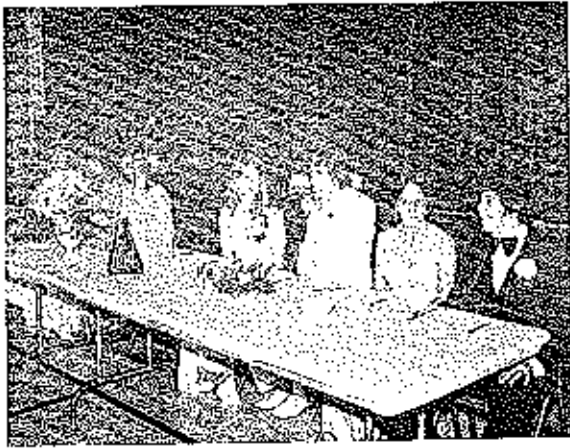

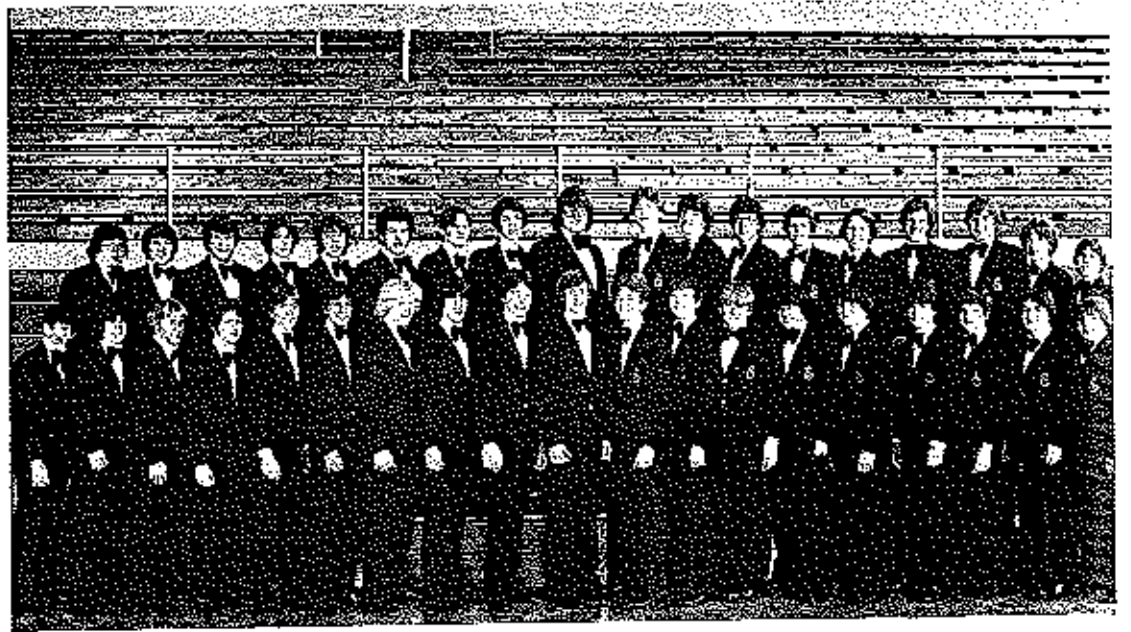

"Stairway To Heaven" Prom - 1979

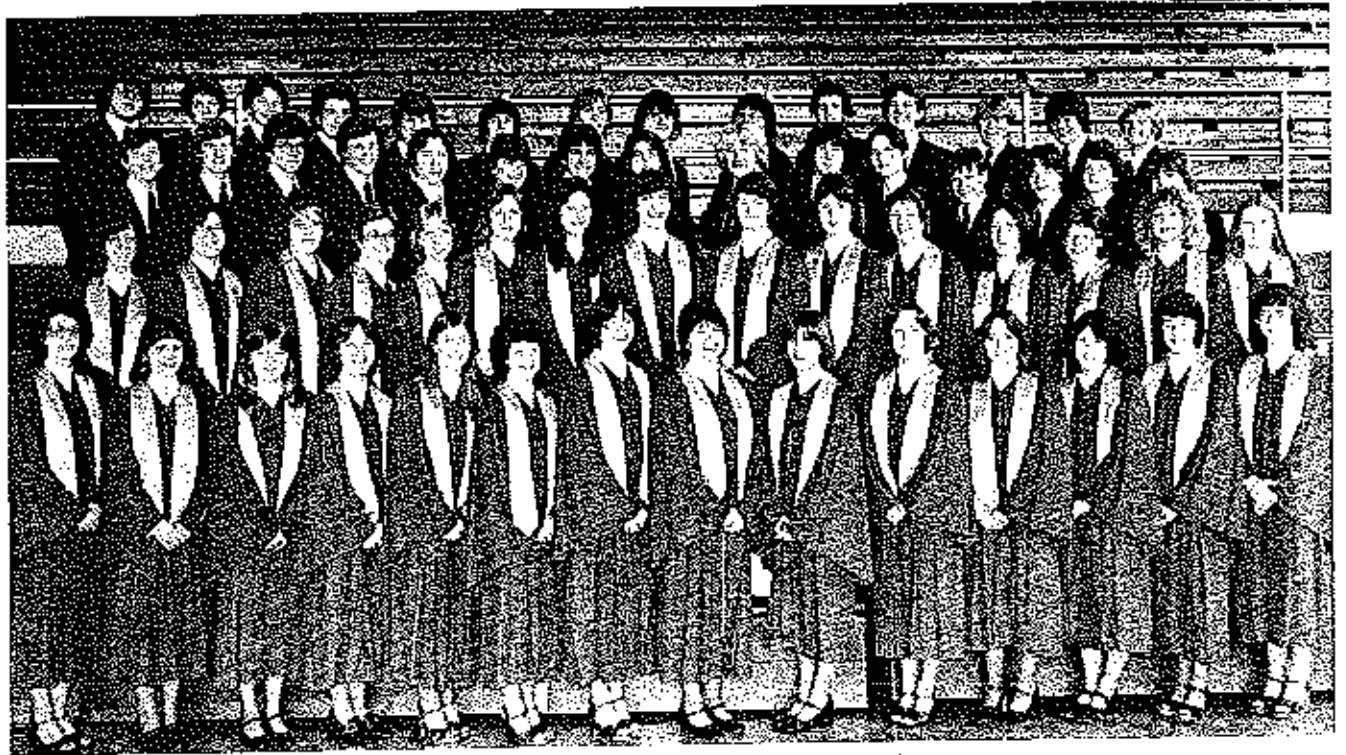

"Stairway To Heaven" was the Junior Class' theme for the May 19th Prom. The evening began with a candelight, buffet dinner at the Jr. High. Dinner entertainment was provided by Teresea Ollison and Barry Corley. The first dance was held at the Old Gym, with music provided by the live band "Flashpoint." Entering the gym, one crossed a flower-strewn bridge over a "reflecting" pool. White streamers created a false ceiling which peaked over a fountain in the middle of the gym/dance floor. Tables and lighted trees surrounded the dance floor. For the second dance, the action moved to the "Power Plant" disco, which was reserved for Eldon's Prom.
